

Explanation

Type Examples	Purpose	General structure	General language features
Scientific writing, explanation Presentation	To explain how or why something occurs	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Phenomenon identification •Explanation sequence 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Technical language •Use of words such as because, as a result, to establish cause-effect sequences
Voice	Grammar Focus
ACTIVE VOICE: (many) verbs may '	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •General and abstract nouns, e.g. Wood chopping, earthquakes •Action verbs •Simple present tense •Conjunction of time and cause •Noun groups, e.g. The large cloud, the particles of gas and dust •Abstract nouns, e.g. The temperature •Adverbial phrases •Complex sentences •Technical language

Explanation

k	Phenomenon identification: What is it? 	Words Sequence of Explanation: (In chronological order) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> * * * * * *
	Cause and effect conclusion

	Purpose	General structure	General language features on	To explain how or why something occurs	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Phenomenon identification •Explanation sequence 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Technical language •Use of words such as because, as a result, to establish cause/ effect sequences